COMPANIES

As a non-profit organization, we offer ourselves so that you, as a company, if you feel identified with our cause and our commitment, can, through KARIBIA's platform, carry out your CSR (corporate social responsibility) policies for international development projects, with the intention of making you participate in that impact that contributes to positive and sustainable changes for the benefit of the most impoverished communities in Africa.

- Access to corporate and/or business aid programs
- Cause Marketing: Fundraising for social purposes associated with the sale of company products
- Donation of surplus, renewed material and material assets for social purposes
- Sponsorship agreement for some cause with the organization
- Corporate volunteering
- Visibility of our organization and our volunteer programs on the company's intranet
- Solidarity Afterwork
